It's time to declutter, and recycle

Jay Kinzler has always felt that one of the easiest ways for a citizen to contribute to a clean environment is to clean up our messes.

"It's simple," said Kinzler, a Glen Ellyn surgeon who has been on the Glen Ellyn Environment Commission for more than five years. "It doesn't cost a lot. And it makes the place look nice."

The Glen Ellyn Recycle Extravaganza from 8 a.m. to noon today will go a long way to tidy up the community, and take a load off those who wish to organize their own garages, basements and attics. It will also alleviate what ends up on the curb to ultimately languish in landfills.

Kinzler is one of the organizers of the effort, which will turn the commuter lot on Duane Street, just west of the Glen Ellyn Public Library, into an efficient recycling hub. Stations will be set up to collect things such as books, cell phones, certain types of plastics, fire extinguishers, eyeglasses, hearing aids, bicy-

Three Fires Council to celebrate its youth with Scout-O Rama May 10

The Boy Scouts of America-Three Fires Council's 25-foot climbing wall is just one of the 120 activities that will be available at Scout-O-Rama.

Scouts from DuPage, Kane, Kendall, DeKalb and parts of Will and Cook counties served by the Boy Scouts of America-Three Fires Council will showcase decades of timeless ideals in Scouting at this year's Scout-O-Rama.

The event celebrates 100 years of the Boy Scouts of America — from the organization's inception in 1910, leading up to the coming milestone in 2010 at Scout-O-Rama.

The event is open to the public from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. May 10 at Cantigny Park in Wheaton. Tickets are $4 each. Coupons are available through Burger King, Colonial Cafe, Dick's Sporting Goods and Oberweis Dairy.

Additional parking will be available at

Samples of Boy Scout memorabilia through the decades will be on display at Scout-O-Rama May 10 at Cantigny Park in Wheaton.

the corporate headquarters of International Truck and Engine Corp. (Navistar), 4201 Winfield Road in Warrenville.

The theme for this year's Scout-O-Rama is "Scouting through History-A Century of Service."

Some of the highlights of this year's Scout-O-Rama include a special opening ceremony (weather permitting) of para-troopers landing with the American flag; a climbing wall; geocaching; Radio Disney Patrol; and the vast offerings of Cantigny Park, including its gardens, just

A Roselle business wants to do more than make women beautiful this weekend. Dazzles Hair Salon and Spa wants customers to feel good on the inside, too.

In the name of two long-time clients, the owners of Dazzles are planning a Cut-A-Thon from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sunday at the salon, 827 N. Roselle Road in Roselle.

Haircuts begin at $15. All of the proceeds go to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Two of Dazzles' clients suffer from MS, an autoimmune disease that affects the central nervous system.
